The Interstate Commission on Educational Opportunity for Military Children has hired retired Brig. Gen. Norman E. Arflack to serve as the Commission’s first Executive Director. Gen. Arflack brings an extensive amount military and state government experience to the Commission. Previously Gen. Arflack served as the Secretary of the Kentucky Justice and Public Safety Cabinet. The Commission’s national office will be located at CSG’s headquarters in Lexington, KY. To learn more about Brig. Gen. Arflack’s career please click here.

By:
Thursday, April 15, 2010 at 12:00 AM
Tags:
Capitol Comments
Policy Area › Interstate Compacts › Interstate Compact on Educational Opportunity for Military Children http://knowledgecenter.csg.org/kc/category/policy-area/interstate-compacts/interstate-compacts/interstate-compact-educational-opportun...