In October of 2013, eight state governors signed a memorandum of understanding (MOU), committing to coordinated efforts to ensure the successful implementation of each state’s Zero Emission Vehicle programs. This ZEV Action Plan is made up of 11 key steps to achieving widespread deployment of electric vehicles. It includes aggressive promotion of electric vehicles and of electric vehicle-friendly policies as a means of cleaning up transportation and stimulating job growth.