★ — Yes

... — No

N.A. — Not available

(a) Individual is a member by virtue of election or appointment to a cabinet-level position.

(b) Except when in executive session.

(c) The Constitutional Cabinet has 10 members including the governor. There are other members of the Cabinet provided by statute.

(d) No formal cabinet system. In Nevada, the cabinet is traditionally comprised of Directors, Chairpersons and leaders of Nevada's top agencies, departments, institutions and the National Guard, in addition to the Lt. Governor.

(e) Membership determined by governor. Some officers formally designated as cabinet member by executive order.

(f) The Governor's Cabinet consists of eight department heads who have responsibility for the majority of the executive branch. They are appointed by the Governor and report to the Governor.

The Council of State exists as a separate body and is composed independently elected statewide officials who oversee certain areas of the executive branch. While the Council of State is provided for in the Constitution and state statutes, the Cabinet is created by the Governor.

(g) Frequency of meetings may fluctuate with Governor's schedule.

(h) State statute allows for 15 cabinet members. With the Governor included there are 16 members.

(i) With the consent of the senate.

(j) Appointed by the governor and confirmed by each house.

(k) Governor's cabinet is specified in statute, but no longer in use. Governor directs department heads through commissioners' meetings and subject matter groups called clusters.

(l) At the discretion of the governor.

(m) Varies by meeting.

(n) Council of State, but not cabinet meetings, are open to the public.
