DSLR Preparedness Program Components

- Funding to state/local public health agencies
- National standards/capabilities
- State/local technical assistance
- Applied science
- Program evaluation
- Policy and Communication
- Coordination with other federal agencies
- Response to public health emergencies
- Public health workforce training
The Hospital Preparedness Program (HPP) cooperative agreement is operated and staffed by the HHS Office of the Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response (ASPR).

Congress appropriates funds to the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) and CDC.

CDC receives funds from HHS and issues awards to state and local health departments via the Public Health Emergency Preparedness (PHEP) and Hospital Preparedness Program (HPP) cooperative agreements.

* The Hospital Preparedness Program (HPP) cooperative agreement is operated and staffed by the HHS Office of the Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response (ASPR).
Public Health Emergency Preparedness Cooperative Agreement

- Strengthens national preparedness through state/local interface
- 62 participating public health departments (state, local, territorial)
- Funding, guidance, and technical assistance
- Preparedness science and measurement
- 15 public health preparedness capabilities
Public Health Emergency Preparedness Capabilities Model

- DSLR developed a capabilities-based strategy for the nation and linked it to the PHEP cooperative agreement to:
  - Define preparedness capabilities most relevant to state and local public health
  - Assist in setting resource priorities
  - Clarify and enhance evaluation and research efforts
  - Provide a more systematic process for subject matter expert engagement
  - Support awardee strategic planning
