Key:
  — Not known.
 ~ — Not applicable.
 (a) Includes parolees discharged from supervision who failed to meet all conditions of supervision, had their parole sentence resumed, or had their parole sentence revoked but were not returned to incarceration because their sentence was immediately reinstated, and other types of unsatisfactory exits; includes some early terminations and expirations of sentence.
 (b) Includes 7,050 parolees who were transferred to another state and 7,881 parolees who exited for other reasons. Other reasons include parolees who were deported or transferred to the jurisdiction of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), had their sentence terminated by the court through an probation supervision, and other types of exits.
 (c) Some or all detailed data are estimated type of exit.
 (d) Total parole population on December 31, 2010, excludes an estimated 11 parolees supervised by another state through an interstate compact agreement (appendix tables 12 and 18). The total parole population on December 31, 2010, includes an additional estimated 34 parolees supervised by another state through an interstate compact agreement (appendix table 12).
 (e) Total parole population on December 31, 2010, excludes 202 parolees supervised by another state through an interstate compact agreement (appendix tables 12 and 18).
 (f) Asian includes an unspecified number of parolees who were Native Hawaiian/Other Pacific Islander because Native Hawaiian/Other Pacific Islander could not be reported separately (appendix table 17).
 (g) Reporting changes between 2000 and 2009—for reporting changes in Virginia that occurred in 2007 and 2008, see Methodology and Probation and Parole in the United States, 2009 BJS Web, NCJ 231674. Reporting changes between 2009 and 2010, population as the result of the implementation of the Virginia Corrections Information System (VACORIS) and the rebuilding of the offender population data used for analysis. The total change in Virginia's parole population was a decrease of 2,040 parolees on January 1, 2010 (2,565), compared to the population reported for December 31, 2009 (4,605) (appendix table 12).
 (h) Total parole population on December 31, 2010, includes an additional 515 parolees supervised for another state through an interstate compact agreement (appendix table 12).
