Section VIII

DIRECTORY OF THE STATES, COMMONWEALTHS AND TERRITORIES

1. State Pages
2. Rosters of State Officials and Directory of State Legislators
The following pages present individual summaries on the several states, commonwealths and territories. Included are listings of certain of the executive officials, the Chief Justices of the Supreme Courts, officers of the legislatures, and members of the Commissions on Interstate Cooperation. Each page concludes with a brief set of statistics for the state concerned.

Listings of all officials are as of December, 1955, except that elective officers of the executive branch chosen in the November, 1955, elections and inaugurated subsequently, are included.

Figures on general revenue and expenditures were furnished in most cases by the United States Bureau of the Census, which coordinates data from states to compensate for variations in terminology and record procedures, making the statistics more nearly comparable. Census Bureau figures of state populations also are used. Most of the data on the following pages, however, were provided directly by agencies of the states themselves.

Rosters of administrative officials classified by functions and a directory of state legislators follow the state pages.

(a) By the Treaty of Paris, 1783, England gave up claim to the 13 original colonies, and to all land within an area extending along the present Canadian border to the Lake of the Woods, down the Mississippi River to the 31st parallel, east to the Chattachoochee, down that river to the mouth of the Flint, east to the source of the St. Mary's, down that river to the ocean. The Territory of the Alleghenies was claimed by various States, but was eventually all ceded to the Nation. Thus, the land acquired was not the land acquired by the Treaty of Paris, but the lower portion from Spain in 1813.
(b) Portion of land obtained by Gadachen Purchase, 1853.
(c) One of the original 13 colonies.
(d) Portion of land ceded by Mexico, 1848.

The Legislature is composed of eleven members known as Senators. The Virgin Islands are divided into three legislative districts as follows: the District of St. Thomas, the District of St. Croix, and the District of St. John. Two Senators are elected from the District of St. Thomas; two from the District of St. Croix; one from the District of St. John, and the other six are At-Large and are elected by electors of the Virgin Islands as a whole. The term of office of each member of the Legislature is two years. Regular sessions of the Legislature are held annually, commencing on the second Monday in April, and continue in regular session for not more than sixty consecutive calendar days in any calendar year.
