Section VIII

THE STATE PAGES
State Pages

The following section presents individual pages on all of the several states, commonwealths and territories.

Included are listings of various executive officials, the Justices of the Supreme Courts, officers of the legislatures, and members of the Commissions on Interstate Cooperation. Lists of all officials are as of December, 1961, or early 1962. Concluding each page are population figures and other statistics, provided by the United States Bureau of the Census.

Preceding the individual state pages, a table presents certain historical data on all of the states, commonwealths and territories.

*Table of official names of states, legislative bodies and capital buildings is on pages 46-47.

(a) By the Treaty of Paris, 1783, England gave up claim to the 13 original colonies, and to all land within an area extending along the present Canadian border to the Lake of the Woods, down the Mississippi River to the 31st parallel, east to the Chattahoochee, down that river to the mouth of the Flint, east to the Georgia line, down that line to the coast, and west to the Territory west of the Alleghenies was claimed by various states, but was eventually all ceded to the nation. Thus, the major part of Alabama was acquired by the Treaty of Paris, but the lower portion from Spain in 1819.

(b) Portion of land obtained by Louisiana Purchase, 1803.

(c) See footnote (a). The lower portion of Mississippi was also acquired from Spain in 1810.

(d) On this date Puerto Rico became a self-governing commonwealth by compact approved by the United States Congress.

(e) One of the original 13 colonies.

(f) Date of ratification of U.S. Constitution.

(g) West Philippine District (Baton Rouge) acquired from Spain, 1819, added to Louisiana, 1817.

(h) Portion of land obtained by Louisiana Purchase, 1803.

(i) See footnote (a). The lower portion of Mississippi was also acquired from Spain in 1810.

(j) The northern portion and the Red River Valley were acquired by treaty with Great Britain, 1818.

(k) Portion of land obtained from Oregon Territory, 1848.
