Section VIII

THE STATE PAGES
The following section presents individual pages on all of the states of the United States, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and the territories of Guam and the Virgin Islands.

Included are listings of various executive officials, the Justices of the Supreme Courts, officers of the legislatures, and members of the Commissions on Interstate Cooperation. Lists of all officials are as of December 1963 or early 1964. Concluding each page are population figures and other statistics, based primarily on reports of the United States Bureau of the Census.

Preceding the individual state pages, a table presents certain historical data on all of the states, commonwealths and territories.

(t) By the Treaty of Paris, 1783, England gave up claim to the 13 original colonies and to all land within an area extending along the present Canadian border to the Lake of the Woods, down the Mississippi River to the 11th parallel of north latitude to the Chattahoochee, down that river to the mouth of the Flint, east along the 4th parallel, and then to the St. Lawrence River to the 48th parallel. The Territory west of the Alleghenies was claimed by various states, and the present Delaware, West Virginia, and Kentucky. This part of Alabama was acquired by the Treaty of Paris, but the low part of land obtained by Gadsden Purchase, 1853. (e) One of the original 13 colonies. (f) Date of ratification of U.S. Constitution. (g) West Feliciana District ( Baton Rouge) acquired from Spain, 1819, added to Louisiana, 1812. (h) Portion of land obtained by Louisiana Purchase, 1803. (i) See footnote (a). (j) To London Company. (k) Mississippi and Alabama also acquired from Spain in 1813. (l) Portion of land obtained from Oregon Territory, 1848. (m) The northern portion of the Red River Valley was acquired by treaty with Great Britain in 1818. (n) On this date Puerto Rico became a self-governing commonwealth by compact approved by the Congress of the United States and the voters of Puerto Rico as provided in U.S. Public Law 600 of 1950. (o) No territorial status before admission to Union. (p) Portion of land ceded by Mexico, 1848. (q) Partially acquired by joint occupation, 1846.

The Legislature is composed of eleven members known as Senators. The Virgin Islands are divided into three legislative districts as follows: the District of St. Thomas, the District of St. Croix, and the District of St. John. Two Senators are elected from the District of St. Thomas; two from the District of St. Croix; one from the District of St. John, and the other six are At-Large and are elected by electors of the Virgin Islands as a whole. The term of office of each member of the Legislature is two years. Regular sessions of the Legislature are held annually, commencing on the second Monday in January, and continue in regular session for not more than sixty consecutive calendar days in any calendar year.
