Section VIII

THE STATE PAGES
The following section presents individual pages on all of the states of the United States, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and the territories of Guam and the Virgin Islands.

Included are listings of various executive officials, the Justices of the Supreme Courts, officers of the legislatures, and members of the Commissions on Interstate Cooperation. Lists of all officials are as of late 1965 or early 1966. Concluding each page are population figures and other statistics, provided by the United States Bureau of the Census.

Preceding the individual state pages, a table presents certain historical data on all of the states, commonwealths and territories.

(a) By the Treaty of Paris, 1783, England gave up claim to the 13 original colonies, and to all land within an area extending along the present Canadian border to the Lake of the Woods, down the Mississippi River to the 31st parallel of latitude to the Chatahoochee, down that river to the mouth of the Flint, east to the 82nd meridian, and down that coast to the ocean. Territory west of the Alleghenies was claimed by various states, becarningly all ceded to the nation. Thus, the major part of Alabama was acquired by the Treaty of Paris, but the balance from Spain in 1819, added to Louisiana, in 1812.
(b) One of the original 13 colonies.
(c) See footnote (a). The lower portion of Mississippi was also admitted from Spain in 1813.
(d) One of the original 13 colonies.
(e) See footnote (a). The lower portion of Mississippi was also admitted from Spain in 1813.
(f) See footnote (a). The lower portion of Mississippi was also admitted from Spain in 1813.
(g) See footnote (a). The lower portion of Mississippi was also admitted from Spain in 1813.
(h) Portion of land obtained by Louisiana Purchase, 1803.
(i) See footnote (a). The lower portion of Mississippi was also admitted from Spain in 1813.
(j) The northern portion and the Red River Valley were acquired by treaty with Great Britain in 1818.
(k) On this date Puerto Rico became a self-governing commonwealth by compact approved by the United States Congress and the voters of Puerto Rico as provided in U. S. Public Law 600 of 1950.

The Legislature is composed of eleven members known as Senators. The Virgin Islands are divided into three legislative districts as follows: the District of St. Thomas, the District of St. Croix, and the District of St. John. Two Senators are elected from the District of St. Thomas; two from the District of St. Croix, one from the District of St. John, and the other six are At-Large and are elected by electors of the Virgin Islands as a whole. The term of office of each member of the Legislature is two years. Regular sessions of the Legislature are held annually, commencing on the second Monday in January, and continue in regular session for not more than sixty consecutive calendar days in any calendar year.
